

Introducing NEW Brands

Stelton & RIG-TIG

We are delighted to announce a new collaboration with Danish housewares brand Stelton and its' sister brand RIG-TIG for a new distribution partnership for the UK and Eire.

Scandinavian design has been synonymous with Stelton for over 50yrs since the outset when an opportunity arose to enter into an agreement with Danish Stainless, a manufacturing company in Denmark producing high quality Danish Design tableware.

In 1967 the Cylinda-line was created by Arne Jacobsen, and became a design classic that is still sought after for its' timeless style and simplicity. Stelton products like the iconic EM77 vacuum jug and the popular Emma collection of coffee and tea vacuum jugs and tableware create a synthesis that embodies innovative and different ideas in relation to concept, design and materials.

RIG-TIG the younger sister brand of Stelton is a kitchen brand that values function, design and resources. In collaboration with international designers RIG-TIG designs award-winning, functional products based on a circular economy mindset.
